Re: Portland Pilots 3.25.24 Rate Filing – Follow-up Information to Board regarding Request for Protective Order

Dear Chair Haley and members of the Board:

During last week's meeting of the Board of Harbor Commissioners for Portland Harbor (Board), the Board asked for additional information regarding the specific nature of the request by Portland Pilots, Inc. (Pilots) to ensure confidential treatment of Attachment 2 to its March 25, 2024 rate filing (Rate Filing). During the meeting, the Pilots offered to provide a redacted copy of Attachment 2 showing the line items but excluding the corresponding numbers, and the Board indicated that providing this information would be very helpful. In this regard, please find attached a copy of Attachment 2 listing the line items, but excluding the numbers. We hope this sufficiently informs the Board regarding the specific nature of our request for protective order.

Additionally, during the Board meeting, there was discussion regarding the Board's past practices regarding maintaining the confidentiality of data similar to Attachment 2. In particular, the Pilots in our request for protective order noted that the Commission in past rate cases had maintained the confidentiality of such information; however, there was a suggestion during the meeting that the Board did not maintain the confidentiality of such data in the context of a 2019 ratemaking proceeding involving the Pilots. The Pilots disagreed with this contention, but this issue was not resolved during the meeting. Rather, we indicated to the Board that we would further check the record to determine how confidential information has been treated by the Commission, and report back. At this point, we have now had a chance to review the 2019 Decision of the Board dated June 6, 2019 as well as three subsequent rate cases process by the Commission, and our findings are as follows.

- 2019 Rate Proceeding. As an initial matter, this rate proceeding was the Commission's first rate proceeding following the Superior Court's issuance of an order in the Bay Ferries case. At that time, the Commission's processing of confidential information was less orderly than in the three subsequent rate proceedings initiated by the Pilots. The 2019 proceeding also involved an emergency rate request that truncated the opportunity to seek confidential treatment of documents. As a result, the 2019 proceeding appears to represent a mix of confidential submissions containing private expense data and public submissions containing similar data.

To illustrate the inconsistent manner in which data was treated in the 2019 case, the Commission's final order in the case is explicit in one instance that information of the type contained in Attachment 2 was provided and maintained confidentially by the Board. The language of the Order stated as follows:

Portland Pilots provided Confidential Exhibit 16, which compared the Portland Pilots' operating cost and safe operating cost for 2018 and 2019, with respective expected revenues for 2018 and 2019 under different pilotage rate scenarios... (Order at 6)

The order also noted the following other exhibits that were provided and deemed confidential (Order at 5):

2018 Charter Crew Salaries
2018 Portland Pilots Individual Pilots' Salaries combined
2018 Portland Pilots Individual Pilots Salaries
2018 Invoice List
January through March 2019 Invoice List
2018 Payments Made
January through March 2019 Payments Made

At the same time, the order references several other documents containing private expense that were not submitted confidentially. To the best of the recollection of the Pilots, the inconsistent treatment of data reflected the accelerated nature of the case and the Commission's use of different procedures compared to prior rate cases. For this reason, we do not believe the treatment of data in the 2019 proceeding provides helpful guidance for how the Commission should treat private expense data now, nor did the 2019 proceeding appear to guide how information was treated in the three rate cases following 2019, which are highlighted below. In those cases, it appears that private expense data was consistently treated as confidential, which is how we believe Attachment 2 should be treated in this case.

- 2020 Rate Proceeding. In this rate proceeding, key documents in the case were treated in the following manner.

These documents were treated confidentially:

Exhibit "A": 2019 Pilot Units in the Port (January 1, 2019 – December 31, 2019)
(formerly Exhibit "17")
Exhibit "B": 2019 PPI Cash Receipts and Disbursements 2019
Exhibit "C": 2019 Pilot Unit / Vessel Actual

Exhibit "H": Ship's Income by Pier 2019 (formerly Exhibit "22")
Exhibit "I": Projected Ship Visits 2020

These documents were treated publicly:

Exhibit "J": Pilot Units Report
Exhibit "K": Projected Pilot Units

- 2022 Rate Proceeding. In this rate proceeding, documents were treated as follows:

- Exhibit R: Current Pilot Unit Rate Sheets
- Exhibit S: Summer Deadweight Reports 2019, 2020 and 2021

- 2023 Rate Proceeding. In this rate proceeding, documents were treated as follows:

These documents were treated confidentially:

- Exhibit D: Portland Pilots comparable ship rates (including ship names) (under seal)
- Exhibit E: Portland Pilots QuickBooks 2022 year-end report (under seal)
- Exhibit F: Pilot Income, Expense, and Budget Projection for 2023
- Exhibit G: Additional information pertaining to financial documents previously submitted and information pertaining to outstanding loans.
- Exhibit H: Portland Pilots 2021 1120S Tax Return
- Exhibit I: Portland Pilots Charter Corp 2021 1120S Tax Returns

These documents were treated publicly:

- Exhibit A: Northeast five port comparison of rates (Port Vessel Rate Comparison at $14.14 / 8.7%)
- Exhibit B: Maintenance Estimates for necessary repairs to pilot boats (supporting CCF request)
- Exhibit C: Vessel Category Summary (with historical data, 2019 - 2022)

In light of the prior three rate proceedings, there is strong history of the Commission according confidential treatment to private expense data from the Portland Pilots, and we continue to believe the Commission should continue to accord confidential treatment to Attachment 2.

Scheduling order. In this letter, we are reiterating our earlier request for a scheduling order. By the time the Board next meets on April 27, 2024, it will have been more than one month since our initial filing. Please also note that I will personally be unavailable from April 30 through May 17th.

Public notice. To our knowledge, there has been no public posting by the Commission regarding our rate filing. We understand the Board still needs to resolve the confidential status of Attachment 2, but we do not believe resolution of this matter should get in the way of providing public notice of our rate filing. We raised this issue by email last week to the Commission, and reiterate our request for public posting in this letter.

Conclusion. For the reasons noted above, the Portland Pilots respectfully request that the Board issue a protective order that designates Attachment 2 as confidential information not subject to public disclosure, and further that any discussion by the Board regarding Attachment 2 be undertaken in camera in executive session.

Very truly yours,

James I. Cohen
